

COURSES AVAILABLE IN NEVADA!

Primary Screener/Personal Radiation Detector Course Train-the-Trainer PER 243/243-1

This instructor-led, exercise-based course is designed to train Participants who are qualified instructors selected by their agency to deliver the PER-243 Primary Screener/Personal Radiation Detector (PRD) Course to effectively train emergency responders. These qualified instructors will learn to prepare and conduct the delivery of the PER-243 course

- August 14-17
- September 25-28
- October 30 - Nov 2

RESPONSE TO RAD/NUC INCIDENTS PER 354/347/345

Participants will learn of the current terrorist threats related to radiological/nuclear WMDs, as well as the characteristics and hazards of Radiation Exposure Devices (REDs), Radiological Dispersal Devices (RDDs), and Improvised Nuclear Devices (INDs), and the related response considerations.

- August 21-24
- September 11-14
- September 18-21
- October 16-19
- October 23-26
- November 6-9
- December 11-14

PRNDOS Preventive Radiological/Nuclear Detection On-Site Program PER 243/245/246

The Preventive Radiological/Nuclear Detection On-Site Program (PRNDOS) Program offers three of the prevent mission courses in one-week-long training program. Applicants should be law enforcement and public safety officers from jurisdictions that currently own or are scheduled to receive instruments used for detection and identification of radiological materials.

- August 14-17
- November 13-16
- December 4-7

Please contact us at CTOSREG@NV.DOE.GOV for more information